

Sergeant-at-Arms role is to ensure a smooth, orderly, and dignified meeting, handling physical preparations, guiding the general conduct of members and guests, and allowing the president to focus on leading the meeting. This position is a non-voting position on board.

Director of Public Image is responsible for managing the club's public relations, social media, website, and marketing, ensuring a positive image and promoting NextGen Rotary's activities and projects to the community. This position is a voting position on board.

For this role you will need experience or have the strong willingness to learn: Canva, ClubRunner (Website & Newsletters), Meta Business Suite (Facebook & Instagram), and LinkedIn.

Please let President-Elect Patrick Rankin know if you have any questions or have an interest in joining his board! Email: patrickrankin.rotary@gmail.com